----- INSTITUTIONAL ADJUSTMENT -----

Inmate CINTRON-CARABALLO has demonstrated a good institutional adjustment. He has followed the Unit Team recommendations and has maintained clear conduct. He has a good rapport with staff as well as with other inmates.

A. PROGRAM PLAN: Inmate CINTRON-CARABALLO was initially designated to USP-1 Coleman, Florida on 11-14-2001, to serve his sentence. During his first program review at FCC Coleman-USP, Florida, the following recommendations were made: to obtain a job in UNICOR, to enroll and participate in an Adult Continued Education class and to participate in recreational activities. During the twelve months in USP-1 Coleman, Fl, he has made good progress towards these goals.

B. WORK ASSIGNMENTS: Inmate CINTRON-CARABALLO is currently assigned to the UNICOR work detail as UOH 5. According to his supervisor, he has a positive relationship with his co-workers and is not considered a management problem. He has demonstrated a good attitude toward his work detail, he has demonstrated punctuality, willingness to accept and complete work assignments and accept direct supervision. His supervisor reports that he makes fewer mistakes than most inmates at his level of training.
